AO 472 (Rev. 11/16) Order of Detention Pending Trial
☐ Significant family or other ties outside the United States ☐ Lack of legal status in the United States
Subject to removal or deportation after serving any period of incarceration
<ul><li>☐ Prior failure to appear in court as ordered</li><li>☐ Prior attempt(s) to evade law enforcement</li></ul>
Use of alias(es) or false documents
Background information unknown or unverified
Prior violations of probation, parole, or supervised release
OTHER REASONS OR FURTHER EXPLANATION:
Based on the allegations set forth in this Complaint, information set forth in the government's proffer, as well as the information provided to the Court by Pretrial Services, the Court finds that there is a rebuttable presumption that the defendant poses a substantial risk of nonappearance and a danger to the community. On advice of counsel, the defendant did not interview with Pretrial Services. Accordingly, the Court does not have information regarding the defendant's residence or residential history in this or any other community, family ties, employment history, financial resources, mental or physical health, or whether the defendant uses or abuses controlled substances or abuses alcohol. The rebuttable presumptions in this case have not been rebutted. There are no conditions or combination of conditions that the Court could fashion at this time to reasonably assure the defendant's future appearance in court or to protect the community against the risk of danger posed by the defendant. The Court therefore orders that the defendant be detained pending trial.
Part IV - Directions Regarding Detention
The defendant is remanded to the custody of the Attorney General or to the Attorney General's designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant must be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility must deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
